A Letter from Your Husband Who is Now in Heaven

Last Updated

Important Note: This document is also stored on However, it is encrypted with a password:

Dear

About this Letter:

<Any introductory material here. Mine is a little "lighthearted" given the seriousness of the occasion, but since I am a bit of "cut up" I decided to have a little fun with the letter too.>

Important Note about our Will: <share any information about you will – i.e., where it is kept, paper vs. digital, attorney and trustee information, etc.>

Important Information about Online Passwords <in this section, I describe where I maintain all my online account and password information (I use a product called LastPass, but there are several good ones out there.>

Important Information about Computer access and office files: <assume that your survivors and executor my need access to your computer and paper files; provide information on how to access them here.>

Specific Financial Information:

- 1. Disability Insurance. <list any disability insurance policies here>
- 2. Life Insurance <list any life insurance policies here; include policy locations, agent contact information, etc.>
- 3. Social Security <SS benefit information and login information for Social Security accounts at socialsecurity.gov
- 4. 401(k) and IRA information: <location, names, numbers, login information, contacts, etc.>
- 5. Investments. < describe investments, philosophy, suggestions about the future, etc.>
- 6. Ongoing IRA Portfolio Management. <suggestions about what you do if you are managing your own investments (I do, and I suggest that my wife contact an advisor and I give her some suggestions)>
- 7. Income Annuities. <information about any income annuities, plus how they might fit in the future>
- 8. IRA Distributions (for Income). <describes how I am currently handling withdrawals from my IRA for retirement income through my accounts at Fidelity>
- 9. Savings. <information on misc. savings accounts>
- 10. House Mortgage. <mortgage and any home equity line information>

A Letter from Your Husband Who is Now in Heaven

Last Updated

- 11. Credit Cards. <information on credit cards, accounts, balances, etc., if any>
- 12. Health Insurance. <employer, private, ACA, Medicare, etc. if Medicare, include all supplements, how paid each month, etc.>
- 13. Long Term Care Insurance. <info. on any LTC policies>
- 14. Regular Banking and Online Bill Payment. <info. on all regular checking and savings accounts, online billpay and computer software, such as Quicken or Banktivity>
- 15. Income Taxes. <how you have taxes done each year online, Turbo Tax, tax professional, and where tax records are stored>
- 16. Charitable Giving. <regular giving, how gifts are made, etc,>
- 17. Life Insurance. <info. on all policies currently in effect; don't forget about employer-sponsored plans if you have them>
- 18. Property and Casualty Insurance. <info. on all policies home, auto, umbrella, special, etc.>

Miscellaneous Information:

- 1. My Email. <email accounts and passwords>
- 2. Websites. <personal websites, blogs, social media sites, etc>
- 3. Passive income sources. <rents (provide info. on any rental properties here or in another section), royalties, sale of business, structured settlements, outstanding lotter tickets (just kidding), etc.>
- 4. Other Online Accounts. <online accounts or services that may have a cost associated with them, or that others need to know about. If they have a log-in, where that information is stored.>

Examples:

- a. Apple.
- b. PayPal.
- c. Amazon.
- d. Google.
- e. TV/Cable/Internet Accts.
- f. Miscellaneous:

General:

<Include and information here that didn't "fit" in the above sections. If you have special or unique situations, you can add specific sections to cover them.>

Close:

<closing remarks>